Pre-Arrival Danish

Pre-Arrival Danish for new international employees and spouses at Aarhus University

CLAVIS – language & competence provides an 8-week online course in Danish for new international employees and spouses at Aarhus University. The course gives you the opportunity to kick-start and train your Danish skills before you arrive and get the best possible start in Denmark.

The course can be completed with a test under the state certified Danish Education.

Course content

Our online platform is specially made for online teaching, which makes it possible to teach the participants as if they were in a classroom. Our sessions will be recorded and available to you during the course, so you can go back if you need to get the instructions or grammar rules repeated. We provide you with teaching materials, which are all available at our online platform. Our teachers are all experienced and trained online teachers, who are educated in the field of second language acquisition.

Course start: Wednesday June 19th or Thursday June 20th

Tuition twice a week - Mondays and Wednesdays / Tuesdays and Thursdays at 2 pm Danish time (GMT+1) - 75 min. per session. Between classes there will be homework.

We provide the course when we have at least 9 registered participants, and you will never experience a class with more than 15 participants. We are very attentive to create the best possible online learning environment.

Price

The total price for the course is 3600 DKK. ($ 538).
