

Reception for expats

Aarhus University, Aarhus Festival and partners invite expats and their families to a special reception in the pop-up Festival restaurant, The Festival Grill, on Saturday 27 August from 15.00 to 17.00.

At the reception, you can relax with your family and make friends with other expats. Over the years, the reception for expats has become a much looked forward to tradition, and last year 700 people participated in the event.

You will be welcomed by the Mayor of Aarhus, Jacob Bundsgaard. Afterwards you will be treated with some light refreshments prepared by chef Lars Kyllsbech, the founder of restaurant Mefisto in the old Latin Quarters, and freshly made Italian ice cream by the popular Paradis.

UNIVERSITY INTERNATIONAL CLUB (UIC)

The University International Club at Aarhus University provides a social and cultural meeting place for international staff members from PhD students to professors and their partners, guest researchers and visitors from abroad. UIC offers a comprehensive programme with weekly meetings and events, all year round. The UIC 2016 Autumn Programme will soon be launched and offers a wide variety of events, seminars and meetings. The activities include both academic and social events. A new UIC programme is released every semester, so stay updated at www.au.dk/uic.

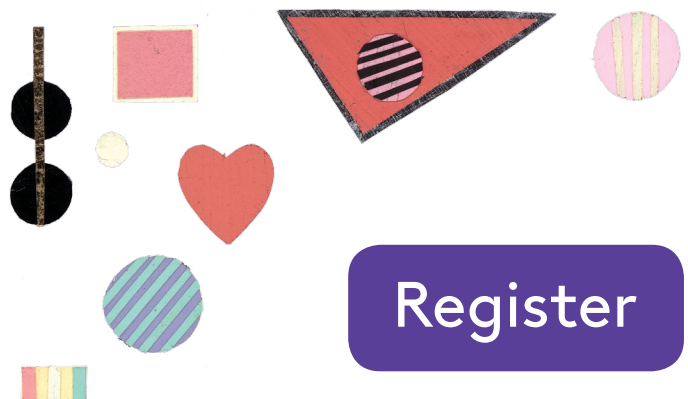

PHD AND POSTDOC ACTIVITIES AT AU

The PhD House Activity Group hosts monthly activities for AU PhD students and postdocs. The activities cover both academic and social events such as music events, games afternoons and after work meetings in and around the PhD House. Read more about current PhD and postdoc activities on phd.au.dk/phdhouse or join our group on Facebook: PhD House Activity Group at Aarhus University.

Taking place in the heart of Aarhus, the reception is just a stone's throw from a number of other entertaining and engaging festival activities for the whole family, making the reception the perfect excuse for a day of family fun.

We look forward to seeing you.
