Invites you to a Work-shop

Friday 8 June

9am – 12pm

At Lærdansk Aarhus, Vestergade 72

Room 112/113

‘The art of networking - your way into the job market’

How do you start networking?

How can you make use of a professional network?

How can you help yourself and others with your career and contact to the labour market?

Join a discussion on why a professional network is important and useful.

Raghad Pedersen from Raghad Health, Safety & Leadership will talk about the importance of a professional network and how you get started.

The meeting will be held in English and if you are interested in participating you must register before 29-05-2012.
